No. 22. Read the following letter from the Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Fort William, 25th November 1870, No. 3156 :—

Pensions and Gratuities.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 392, dated 26th September 1870, submitting the case of Mr. J. C. Winscom, a Deputy Collector on the Madras establishment, who prior to his appointment as Deputy Collector on the 1st January 1870 was employed (from the 24th April 1867 till the 31st December 1869) as Collector of License, Certificate, and Income Taxes, and who requests that his service from 24th April 1867 to the 31st December 1869 may be allowed to count for leave and pension as an uncovenanted servant.

2. The Government of Madras recommends that Mr. Winscom's application may be granted, and that generally a ruling be issued as to the status, in respect of leave and pension, of the servants employed in the collection of the late License, Certificate, and existing Income Taxes.

3. In reply, I am to say that the Governor-General in Council sees no reason for retrospectively converting into pensionable service a service which is non-pensionable because rendered as a temporary arrangement; such retrospective additions to emoluments or advantages are inadmissible.

4. As to the general principle, the Governor-General in Council desires me to remark that an officer in Government service detached for employment in the late License Tax, Certificate Tax, and existing Income Tax Departments as an incident in his official career is, of course, entitled to pension in respect to such employment, and that probably it is desirable ordinarily so to arrange for the duties of such Departments. If, however, an officer is taken on temporarily in any Department, he cannot claim the benefit of the temporary service towards pension.

Ordered that copies of the above letter be furnished to—

The several local Governments (Government of Madras excepted) and Administrations; the Comptroller-General of Accounts; the several Accountants General; the several Deputy Accountants-General in independent charge, and the Military and Public Works Departments.
