Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 4th January 1870.

Read the following papers :—

No. 7. From the Secretary to the Committee for the Examination of Assistants, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 18th November 1869, No. 280.

I have the honour, by direction of the President, to bring to the notice of Government that the Budget provision for the current year is likely to prove insufficient to meet the rewards and travelling allowance to Junior Civilians who are to be examined in Oriental languages.

2. The sum unexpended on this date is Rupees 5000, while the names of seven candidates are registered for examination in January next. If all these gentlemen pass, the aggregate amount of rewards sanctioned will be Rupees 10,400, and in the case of six of them travelling allowance will be claimable.

3. It has been ascertained from the Accountant-General that no sum will be available from any other Budget head to supplement the Committee's grant, should the above-specified contingency occur.

3. In these circumstances the President considers that the estimate for 1870-71 should be raised to at least Rupees 12,000, because he sees there will be no alternative before him when reporting the result of the next examination but to propose deferring payment of whatever amount of rewards is in excess of Rupees 5000 until the 1st of April 1870, when the new year's Budget will place additional funds at the Committee's disposal, and in this case, if the estimate for the next year is retained at its present amount, the balance available for rewards sanctioned during its currency may thus be only Rupees 2600 in place of Rupees 8000.

No. 8. From the Secretary to the Committee for the Examination of Assistants, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 11th December 1869, No. 314.

With reference to your Official Memorandum of the 24th ultimo, No. 498, to the President of the Committee for the Examination of Assistants, I am directed to subjoin, for your information, a list of the gentlemen who have passed the High Proficiency Test since 1866, from which it will be seen that four had been Students in the College under the system abolished in 1867, and to state that of the thirteen Civilians, (excluding those of this year,) who have come out since that date, only one has as yet presented himself for examination and he has passed. The Civilians under the present system do not take up languages for rewards until after they have passed their standard examinations:—

No. 9. ORDER THEREON, 4th January 1870, No. 4.

Considering the small number of gentlemen who succeeded in obtaining rewards at the examinations held during the years 1866-67, 1867-68, 1868-69, and 1869-70, the Government are of opinion that the sum of Rupees 8000, assigned in the Budget Estimate for 1870-71, is sufficient for the payment of rewards.

2. Should, however, the contingency suggested in the first of the foregoing letters occur, the requisite funds must be provided from savings in the General Budget Grant.

Sir,

I have the honor by direction of the President to bring to the notice of Govern-ment that the Budget-provision for the Current-Year is likely to prove insuffi-cient to meet the rewards and Travelling Allowance to Junior Civilians who are to be examined in Oriental Languages.

The sum unexpended on this date is Rs. 5,000 while the names of 7 Candidates are registered for Examination in Lan-guages. If all these Gentlemen pass the aggregate amount of Rewards mentioned will be Rs. 10,400 and in the case of 6 of them Travelling Allowance will be claimable.

It has been ascertained from the Accountant General that no sum will be available from any other Budget-Head to supplement the Committee's Grant should the above specified contingency occur. In these circumstances the President considers that the Estimate for 1870/71 should be raised to at least Rs 12,000 because he sees there will be no alternative before him when reporting the result of the next Examination but to propose deferring payment of whatever amount of Rewards is in excess of Rs 5,000 until the 1st of April 1870 when the New Year's Budget will place additional funds at the Committee's disposal, and in this case, if the Estimate for the next Year is retained at its present amount, the balance available for Rewards sanctioned during its currency will then be only Rs 2,600 in place of Rs 8,000.
