Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
6th January 1870.

No. 11. Read the following letter from the Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Fort Saint George, 6th December 1869, No. 1465.

Examiner of Claims' Department.]

I have the honour to state that Mr. W. J. H. LeFanu, of the Civil Service, who went home on two years' furlough in September last, claimed previous to his departure the option of drawing the higher minimum absentee allowance of £500 a year under Section 30 of the Rules of 1868, but as it was considered that that Section must be held to have been cancelled from the date of the order reducing the maximum absentee allowance from £1200 to £1000 per annum, the lower minimum absentee allowance of £300 per annum was, pending a reference to the Government of India, entered in the last Pay Certificate issued on account of Mr. LeFanu as per endorsement on that document.

2. I have now the honour to forward, herewith, for transmission to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India, with reference to the endorsement mentioned, the accompanying copy of the reply from the Government of India, dated 16th November 1869, No. 2315, Financial, formally declaring the Section specified to have been cancelled.

From the Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Officiating Accountant-General, Madras, dated Fort William, 16th November 1869, No. 2315.

Leave and Allowances.]

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 1161, of the 7th ultimo, and in reply to state that Section 30 of the Rules of the 16th June 1868, for the grant of leave of absence to Covenanted Civil Servants, must be held to have been cancelled under the Notification of the Government of India, No. 2527, dated the 7th August last.

2. Rule XXX. was intended to give such Officers as should voluntarily elect the lower minimum of £300 furlough allowance, the advantage of the higher maximum of £1200 in future furlough. This option as to the minimum must be held to have been withdrawn when the maximum was reduced in all cases to £1000.

Ordered that the foregoing letter be published in the Gazette of India, and that copies thereof be forwarded to the other Departments of the Government of India; the Comptroller-General of Accounts; the Director-General of the Post Office of India; the other Accountants-General; and the Deputy Accountants-General in independent charge.
