With reference to rule XII of the Local fund rules the Govt desire that the Local fund boards concerned may be consulted as to the appointment of committees.

2. Meanwhile, the masters of the schools can be paid either from the balance of school funds as supplied by the acting Collector, or from General Local funds; the necessary debit being made hereafter, when the house tax is collected, & the union funds definitely formed. The bills must be drawn by the headmasters where committees have not been appointed as is now done in Govt Schools.
