11. In a letter dated 20th October last, Messrs. Coutts and Co. informed the Trustees of the marriage on the 8th September 1870 of Mrs. C. Hooper, widow of the late Mr. W. S. Hooper, an Annuitant on the Fund under the Provident Rules and they were accordingly instructed to reduce the full annuity by one-half from 1st January 1871 under rule 18 of 1863.

12. Messrs. Coutts & Co. have paid the Printers' Bill for the Actuary's Report, amounting to £190-13-3, and the Trustees have instructed them to pay his fee of two hundred Guineas.

13. From letters received from Messrs. Coutts and Co., the Trustees learn that the following names of relatives of deceased Members of the Fund who have made the full value payments and secured the Provident Fund benefits, must be added to those mentioned in the Reports laid before the Meetings of the 29th May and 24th July 1868 and 29th January 1869.

Mrs. M. Wedderburn,
Miss M. H. Wedderburn,
Master A. D. O. Wedderburn,
Miss E. Mortlock,
" H. Mortlock,
" L. Mortlock,
" C. Mortlock.

The whole of these incumbents were already in receipt of benefits under the Charity and Subsidiary Rules.

14. P. Chelvapillah, a Writer on the Establishment of the Civil Fund Office, having represented to the Trustees that he was incapacitated from the performance of his duties by old age, failing health and extreme debility, the Trustees beg to inform the Meeting that in consideration of his long services extending over a period of 30 years and 8 months, they have granted him a pension equal to the half of his salary of Rupees 35 per month from the 1st January.

15. The Trustees are glad to be able to congratulate the Service on the State of the Fund as shown for the 1st April 1868 by the Actuary's Report. The Surplus of assets over liabilities has increased from £120593-4 in 1863 to £160757-1 in 1868. The Capital has also increased and is now more than sufficient to meet all the liabilities both incumbent and contingent, but the exact amount cannot be given till the adjustment referred to in para. 2 of this Report has been effected.

There has not yet been sufficient time to examine the Report thoroughly and the Trustees propose to recur to it at the next half yearly Meeting.
