Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
7th January 1871.

No. 18. Read the following Despatch from the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India in Council, dated India Office, London, 26th October 1870, No. 341 (Financial):—

I have considered in Council your Financial Letter, dated the 2nd September last, No. 209, recommending the grant, as a special case, of a pension of Rupees 33-4-0 per mensem, equal to one-third salary, to S. Kalyani, a Draughtsman formerly employed under Major Gill in copying the paintings in the Adjunta Caves.

2. I sanction the grant of this pension, but I request that Major Gill may be called upon to furnish an immediate explanation of his conduct as brought to notice in paragraph 9 of Kalyani's memorial, and that copies of his explanation and of your orders thereon may be forwarded for my information.

No. 3564.

Ordered that a copy of the above be forwarded to the Government of Madras for information, with reference to its letter, No. 329, dated 4th August 1870, and that the attention of that Government be drawn to paragraph 2 of the Despatch.

Ordered, also, that extract paragraph 1 and part of paragraph 2 of the Despatch be furnished to the Accountant-General, Madras.

(Signed) J. WESTLAND,
Under Secy. to the Govt. of India.
