No. 42. Read the following letter from the Officiating Comptroller-General of Accounts, to all Accountants-General, dated Calcutta, 9th June 1871, Circular No. 124:—

In supersession of the instructions conveyed in this Office Circular, No. 67, dated 5th February 1868, I have the honour to request, under orders of the Government of India, in the Financial Department, of the 19th ultimo, that you will be good enough to exhibit, in your future accounts, all penalties under the Stamp Act which are levied by Courts and specially remitted to Collectors as receipts under the head of "Stamps," instead of under "Law and Justice," as directed in that Circular.

2. Fines and penalties imposed by Judicial Officers under the Abkarry Act will continue to be credited to "Law and Justice" as heretofore.
