No. 1. From A. R. HUTCHINS, Esq., Madras Civil Service, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Hanover Lodge, Lower Sydenham, London, S. E., 27th October 1870 :—

In accordance with instructions from the Under Secretary of State for India, dated the 26th of October, I have the honour, herewith, to transmit to the Government of Madras the report* of the Medical Board on my case, and to submit this my application for an invalid pension.

* Dated 20th October.

2. In the letter alluded to, the Secretary of State acquaints me that, in accordance with the recommendation of the Medical Board, my resignation of the Madras Civil Service has been accepted from the 6th instant, subject to the adjustment of any demands that may be standing against me in India.

3. I am sending a duplicate of this application to the Managers of the Civil Service Annuity Fund.

We certify, after having taken the usual obligation, to have carefully examined Mr. A. R. Hutchins, Madras Civil Service, and find that, since his last appearance, no improvement has taken place in his nervous system. His anæmic condition and general symptoms are indicative of permanent mental and bodily incapacity. The Board are of opinion that this Officer will never again be able to perform any useful service in India. He has already been sent Home three times, and we consider him altogether unfit to return to the tropics.
