 Dear Sir,
 I have been driven to this at last - it is not my fault that my present application is so late in being sent in. But they were five weeks at the India Office & over the application for further leave and now I am told that it may be 10 days or more before they will advise me further.

 Nos. 1-3.

Admitting the Hon. C. Collett to an annuity of £1,000 per annum, from the 30th July 1871, payable in England.

After acceptance of my resignation. - I shall be much obliged if during the absence is received you will kindly put this matter through for me with as little delay as possible.
There should be no delay in the accounts dept. as I have a letter from Rodrick that all be considered clear for my services in that office, and I am writing to George at Sec^y to the Civil Fund I have things ready there - though after the recent despatch there is nothing due done there I suppose now -

I shall be much obliged for your kind assistance in facilitating matters for me -

I hope that you will have returned to your office in health and safety -
