No. 91. Read the following letter from the Assistant Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Simla, 24th June 1871, No. 1497:—

In forwarding to you the accompanying copy of a letter* from the Mint Master, Calcutta, I am directed to request that, with the permission of His Excellency the Governor in Council, the application therein preferred may be complied with.

* No. 170, dated 9th June 1871.

Copy to Mint Master, Calcutta, for information.

From Colonel H. HYDE, R.E., Mint Master, Calcutta, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Calcutta, 9th June 1871, No. 170.

Referring to the list of coining machines still in the Madras Mint, and which list accompanied your letter, No. 673, of 25th May 1871, I have to suggest that the fifteen stamping-presses† (provided they are all of the new pattern) be sent up to this Mint. If any of these presses are not of new pattern, such should not be sent. These presses are of a late construction and are much superior for gold and silver to those in this Mint, and they cannot be utilized at Madras.

† Complete with shafting.

2. I would suggest two new patterns marking-machines should be sent up, and if any one of the drills is a traversing or slotting drill, it also should be sent.

3. None of the other machines can be utilized in this Mint.

No. 92. ORDER THEREON, 21st August 1871, No. 371.

Ordered that the Superintendent of the Public Works Stores and Workshop at Madras be instructed, through the Public Works Department, to pack up carefully and despatch to the Mint Master at Calcutta the fifteen stamping-presses and the two marking-machines, belonging to the late Madras Mint, together with all shafting connected with the machines.

2. The Superintendent will also be instructed to examine the drills, and if one is a traversing and slotting drill, he will despatch it with the other machines.
