Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
4th January 1871.

Read the following papers:—

No. 3. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 2nd December 1870.

Read Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, dated 14th November 1870, No. 71, forwarding, to the Board of Revenue and Accountant-General, copies of a letter from the Supreme Government, for their opinion as to the officers who should be appointed under Section 16 of the Indian Coinage Act, No. XXIII. of 1870.

The Board are of opinion that the power conferred by Section 16, Act XXIII. of 1870, may be vested in all Hoozoor Treasurers and in Agents of the Branches of the Bank of Madras in charge of District Treasuries.

2. After some experience is gained as to the working of this provision of the law, Tahsildars and other officers having charge of separate treasuries may be added to the list.

Resource Department.

With reference to the Order of Government, Financial Department, No. 449, dated 7th instant, I have the honour to state that, in addition to such officers of the Revenue Department whom the Board of Revenue may select for exercising the authority required by Section 16 of the Indian Coinage Act XXIII. of 1870, the Secretary and Treasurer to the Madras Bank and his Agents in the interior, who conduct Government Treasury work, may also be entrusted with the necessary powers contemplated in the above section.

No. 5. ORDER THEREON, 4th January 1871, No. 3.

Under Section 16 of the Indian Coinage Act (XXIII. of 1870) His Excellency the Governor in Council resolves to authorize the following Officers to cut or break coin under the said section:—

Collector of Sea Customs, Madras.
Treasurers of the District Treasuries.
Secretary to the Bank of Madras.
Agents of Branch Banks in charge of District Treasuries.

2. These several Officers will, as suggested by the Government of India in their Secretary's letter, dated the 12th October last, No. 4121, be directed not to exercise the power entrusted to them too rigidly in the case of coin which has lost weight even a little in excess of two per cent. by reasonable wearing; but on no account to neglect to cut or break any coin, counterfeit or reduced in weight otherwise than by reasonable wearing.
