No. 57. Read the following letter from the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Simla, 31st August 1871, No. 3146:—

Leave and Allowances.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 1091, of the 6th July 1869, and its enclosures, and, in reply, to state that the Governor-General in Council is pleased to approve the Rules annexed to the Order of the Government of Fort St. George, No. 1090 of that date, regarding privilege leave to Judicial Officers.

2. I am directed to request that, when the Rules are issued by the Government of Madras, a copy of them may be forwarded to this Department, in order that they may be inserted in their place in the Covenanted Civil Service Leave Code.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of the foregoing letter be forwarded to the—

Home Department, in reply to that Office Memorandum, No. 897, of the 2nd June 1871.

Accountant-General, Madras.

No. 58. ORDER THEREON, 15th September 1871, No. 454.

Resolved that the Rules embodied in Proceedings, dated 6th July 1869, Nos. 10 to 12, regarding privilege leave to Judicial Officers, be published in the Fort St. George Gazette for general information and guidance.

2. Resolved, also, that copies of the Rules be sent to the Government of India and to the Honourable Judges of the High Court.

NOTIFICATION.

With the sanction of the Government of India, His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to prescribe the following Rules for regulating the grant of privilege leave to Judicial Officers:—

RULES.

I. Except in the case specified in Rules III. and IV. service in judicial offices, whether or not the holders voluntarily remain at the Court stations during the adjournments, shall not be counted towards privilege leave.

II. If an officer having privilege leave to his credit be appointed to act temporarily in a judicial office, and if the Court be adjourned during his tenure of it, so much of the recess enjoyed as has not been earned by his service in judicial office shall be deducted from the privilege leave accumulated to his credit. The portion earned will bear to the entire recess the same proportion which the officer's term of judicial service bears to the whole year less the recess. Should the portion to be deducted calculated in this manner equal or exceed the accumulated privilege leave, the accumulation will be cancelled.

III. If the Court be not adjourned during the acting officer's tenure, or if an acting officer be relieved of his judicial appointment during the recess, he shall be entitled to privilege leave for his service in judicial office, or for such term of it as is not counterbalanced by the portion of the recess enjoyed, the calculation being made as in Rule II. Similarly a Judicial Officer whether acting or not, who by transference to another Court or otherwise loses a portion of the recess which he had earned by his judicial service, shall be entitled to have placed to his credit privilege leave calculated on such portion of his service as is represented by the portion of recess lost.

IV. If a Judicial Officer be specially detained on duty during the recess, he shall be entitled to privilege leave at the ordinary rates.

V. In the foregoing Rules, the terms Judicial Officer and judicial office shall include all servants of whatever grade who, and all offices the holders of which, are paid from State funds and ordinarily benefit by the adjournment of the Courts.

(By Order of His Excellency the Governor in Council.)
