Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
3rd October 1871.

No. 18. Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Public), to the Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Simla, 20th September 1871, No. 4377:—

Referring to my letter, No. 2932, dated 15th June last, forwarding copy of a Notification, No. 2931, of the same date, regarding the compulsory retirement of Uncovenanted Servants of Government on their reaching the age of fifty-five years, I am directed to state that this rule does not apply to menial servants, but only to Uncovenanted Servants on a salary above Rupees 10 per mensem. In the case of the former, their compulsory retirement at or after the age of fifty-five may be left to the discretion of the Head of the Office or Department under the orders of the Local Government concerned. But the fact of their superannuation should, as now, be certified to by medical testimony.
