Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
16th October* 1871.

No. 72. Read the following letter from the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Public), to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Simla, 6th October 1871, No. 4581:—

A paragraph in the Englishman newspaper of the 19th ultimo asserts, on the authority of the Bangalore Herald, that the Madras Government has directed the application to peons of the rule under which Uncovenanted Servants are compelled to retire from service after attaining the age of 55 years. In case there be any foundation of truth in this assertion, I am to invite attention to the Circular from this Office, No. 4377, dated 20th ultimo.

No. 73. ORDER THEREON, 16th October 1871, No. 563.

To be recorded.
