No. 9. Read the following letter from the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Fort William, 21st February 1871, No. 969:—

Pensions and Gratuities.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 45, dated 27th January 1871, regarding a claim to gratuity in behalf of Mr. T. C. D'Rozario, late Examiner of Correspondence and Record-keeper in the Sanitary Commissioner's Office, Madras.

2. It is observed that, previous to his appointment as Examiner of Correspondence and Record-keeper, Mr. D'Rozario was Head Clerk in the General Department of the Sanitary Commissioner's Office, on a pay of Rupees 100 a month, and that, on the abolition of that office in June 1869, he accepted the post of Examiner of Correspondence and Record-keeper, the pay of which was only Rupees 50 a month. The acceptance of the lower paid office, which he held for a brief period, does not, I am to say, bar his claim to the gratuity which was admissible to him on the abolition in June 1869 of the higher paid office, and the Governor-General in Council is pleased to authorize the grant to Mr. D'Rozario of gratuity calculated on the service rendered by him up to June 1869, and on the pay then received by him.

3. In regard to the calculation of service, I am to state that, though under rule, period of employment before the age of 22 is not allowed to count, the rule is not enforced in the case of grants of gratuity on account of abolition of office. The benefit, therefore, of his service before the age of 22 being allowed to Mr. D'Rozario, he has a service of eight years, seven months, and four days, viz., from 1st August 1860 to 4th June 1869, less three months' absence on leave, and this renders him eligible to a gratuity of Rupees 800, equal to eight months' pay, which is accordingly sanctioned.

4. The enclosures of your letter are herewith returned.

Ordered that a copy of the above letter be furnished to the Accountant-General, Madras.
