No. 123. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 8th August 1872, No. 5467 (Miscellaneous):—

Read the following letter from the President of the Local Fund Board, Nellore, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Nellore, 17th July 1872, No. 409:—

I have the honour, with reference to G. O., No. 469, of 6th April 1872, to submit proposals for the formation of an Educational Union for the support of the middle-class school at Venkatagiri.

2. Venkatagiri is the principal village of the Zemindary of that name, and is the seat of the Rajah. It is situated at the south-west frontier of this district, and is the head-quarters of a Sub-Magistrate and Inspector of Police, and has a Police Station. A great number of the people are supported entirely by the assistance of the Rajah, and not a few are in poor circumstances, owing to their having, some eight or nine years ago, lost their all by fire. Several houses are in consequence left untenanted. Generally speaking, however, this village, as well as its suburb, Bungarupett, which is a mile distant, and which it is proposed to include in the union, are said to be in a flourishing condition, and the Local Fund Board have decided on the advisability of establishing a union in the place, and have accordingly accepted and sanctioned the Officiating Deputy Collector's proposals on the subject.

3. The Anglo-Vernacular School at Venkatagiri was established in February 1865 under the patronage of the Rajah, and was maintained by him up to the end of the past official year. From May 1869 the school has also been receiving a grant-in-aid from Government. Under instructions from the Director of Public Instruction school fees have been levied, and this practice the Local Fund Board have resolved to continue.

4. The union extends over an area of $1\frac{3}{4}$ square miles, and consists of the villages of Venkatagiri and Bungarupett. It is bounded on the—

North by the southern limits of Yacha Samudram, Bungarapuram, Gundla Samudram, and Chintagunta.

East by the western limits of Jangalapalli, Kummaragunta, Ammavaripett, Goppapuram, and Chereddipulli.

South by the northern limits of Manalalapett, Akbarnivisvari Khandriga, and Chintalapallivari Khandriga.

West by the eastern limits of Akkamambapuram, Somasamigunta, Lalpett, and Dharmapuram.

5. There are 2814 houses in all. Of these 1524 have been exempted from the tax, and the remaining 1290 have been classified as below:—

6th Class.

| | | | |
| Dwellings, | thatched, | from 10 to 20 | Ankanams. |

6. The proposals in respect to sanitation and improvements are similar to those made in reports on former unions. The principal roads in both villages are metalled, and there are choultries in both places for the accommodation of travellers.

7. I beg to enclose, for approval and sanction, a statement showing the particulars of the proposed house-tax, together with a revised budget of receipts and expenditure in the usual form. A draft notification in the form prescribed by Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, No. 1104, dated 25th June 1872, showing the limits of the union and the rates of tax, is also appended for approval and sanction.
