RESOLUTION.—The Governor-General in Council observes that under the orders of 14th December 1870 no appointment with a pay exceeding Rupees 250 a month may be created by a local Government, whether as a special and ungraded appointment, or by an increase of the number in an existing grade.

2. With this reservation the local Government may add to the number of those existing grades the pay of which does not exceed Rupees 250 a month.

3. The operation of Rule 3 in paragraph 21 of Financial Resolution No. 3334, dated 14th December 1870, should be watched in the Proceedings of the local Governments which are submitted to the Government of India.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of the foregoing Resolution be forwarded to the Public Works Department; the Foreign, Home, and Revenue Departments; to all local Governments and Administrations: the Comptroller-General: and the Accountants-General and Deputy Accountants-General in independent charge.
