Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
5th February* 1872.

No. 5. Read the following letter from the Acting Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Fort St. George, 10th January 1872, No. 487 :—

Audit Department.

As the view of Mr. Barrow's case expressed by this Department in letter to Government, No. 145, dated 7th July last, has been confirmed by the Government of India in their letter to this Government, No. 3307, dated 30th ultimo, I have the honour to observe that Mr. Barrow is liable to retrenchment of full pay up to date of joining his appointment at Calicut, unless he is allowed preparatory leave up to that date, in which case he will be allowed half-pay, as already reported in Memorandum from this Department, No. 102, dated 12th June last. The acting allowance of Coopoosawmy Sastry which was ordered to be recovered will now have to be refunded to him. I beg, therefore, that His Excellency in Council will be pleased to state whether Mr. Barrow is to be considered to have been on preparatory leave or not.

No. 6. ORDER THEREON, 5th February 1872, No. 116.

Under Section 18 of the Uncovenanted Service Absentee Rules, the Government direct that Mr. Barrow be considered as having had preparatory leave from the 1st May 1871 to the date of his joining his appointment at Calicut.

2. The refund of the acting allowance of Coopoosawmy Sastry is sanctioned.

Memorandum on a letter from the Ag Accountant General, dated the 10th January 1872 No. 487.

Under Rule 1 Chapter XIII of the Covenanted Civil Service Leave Code, "an officer's leave or time for joining an Appointment to which no substitute or acting officer has been appointed, expires on a Sunday or holiday, and he takes charge of his duties on the forenoon of the first working day following such Sunday or holiday he shall be treated in regard to his allowances as if he had taken charge charge on the day on which the leave expired.

2. The Government of India in their Secretary's letter, dated the 30th December 1871 No 3307, state "that the condition of the rule is satisfied if there is no acting Officer during the period by which the leave is overstayed".

3. In Mr Barrow's case, there was an acting Officer, and he is therefore not entitled to any allowances from the 1st to the 23rd May.

4. To prevent this retrenchment, the Accountant General suggests that Mr Barrow be allowed preparatory preparatory leave under Section 18 of the Uncovenanted Service Absentee Rules.

5. The following is an extract from the Section. "Preparatory or additional leave is allowed to Officers proceeding to or from a Sanitarium on Medical Certificate."

6. Mr Barrow was on sick leave and returned from a Sanitarium (Ootacamund).

7. It is thought that as an exceptional case the preparatory leave suggested by the
