No. 161. To the Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Ootacamund, 25th September 1872, No. 1276.

In reply to your letter, dated the 30th July 1872, No. 1590, I am directed to inform you that, besides Colonel Ritherdon, the Officiating President (who joined the Municipality on the 22nd May last), the only other officer lent to the Madras Municipality is Native-Surgeon S. Jesudasen. He joined the Municipality in May 1861, when he drew Rupees 300 from the Municipality and Rupees 150 from Government. In 1865 the municipal allowance was raised to Rupees 400, and in February 1866 to Rupees 500, and the pay as Native Surgeon, after fourteen years' service, was also raised to Rupees 200, making his net allowance equal to Rupees 700 per mensem. Under the operation of Madras Act IX. of 1867, Section 12, which required officers holding appointments under the Municipality "not to hold any other appointment, nor follow any other occupation," Native-Surgeon S. Jesudasen ceased to draw pay from Government. His total service in the Municipal Commission is eleven years and three months to the end of August last.

2. Colonel Ritherdon has drawn no pay pending a reply from the Government of India to my letter of the 4th July last, No. 853.
