Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
4th October 1872.

No. 64. Read the following letter from the President of the Municipal Commission, Coimbatore, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Coimbatore, 19th September 1872, No. 14 :—

The village of Pallapolliem is situated on the western outskirts of the Pallapolliem Tank (the present western boundary of the Coimbatore Municipality) and the town of Coimbatore on its eastern, and the intermediate distance is nearly quarter of a mile. Water stands in this tank for three months in the year, and is used for drinking purposes. The villagers of Pallapolliem commit nuisance on and about their side of the bund of the tank, and use the water for washing, &c. The Commissioners have therefore, and in consideration of the generally insanitary condition of that village, resolved to include it in the Coimbatore Municipality.

2. I have the honour to request that the accompanying notification, extending the western boundary of the Municipality, may be sanctioned and published in the Fort St. George Gazette, to take effect from the 1st October next, the commencement of the second half of the current year 1872-73.

NOTIFICATION.

The Governor in Council doth hereby declare, in accordance with the provisions of Section 5 of the Towns' Improvement Act, 1871 (Madras Act III. of 1871), that the western boundary of the Coimbatore Municipality shall be as follows from the 1st October 1872, so as to include the village of Pallapolliem, that is to say :—

West.—From the south-west corner of Periakolum (Big Tank) to junction of the bandy track from Soondackoymuttur with road from Perur to Coimbatore, and from junction of bandy track from Soondackoymuttur with Perur road to the south-east corner of Komarasamy Tank.

No. 65. ORDER THEREON, 4th October 1872, No. 1348.

The Governor in Council sanctions the extension of the western boundary of the Coimbatore Municipality so as to include the village of Pallapolliem, and directs that the notification submitted by the President be published in the Coimbatore District Gazette, as required by Sections 6 and 156 of the Towns' Improvement Act.
