FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

No. 1375.

FROM

THE HON. R. S. ELLIS, C.B.,
Chief Secretary to the Government of Fort St. George,

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

With reference to your letter, dated the 15th August 1872, No. 2011, I am directed to inform you that the Madras Government have not hitherto been guided by any specific order or authority in placing a Covenanted Civil Servant out of employ on subsistence allowance, but by the circumstances which rendered necessary the removal or suspension from employment.

2. I append a list of cases of officers who came on subsistence allowance either by resignation of, or removal or suspension from, office since 1854, with the grounds for such removal or suspension.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Acting Under Secy. to Govt., for Chief Secretary.

OOTACAMUND,
10*th October* 1872.

List of Cases of Covenanted Officers removed or suspended from employment since 1854, and who were in receipt of subsistence allowance.

An officer was removed from the office of Agent to the Governor at Kurnool, on the 5th October 1854, for remissness of duty and disregard of calls made upon him by his official superior. He remained unemployed until the 1st August 1859, when he retired from the service on an annuity becoming available.

2. An officer was removed from the office of Accountant-General, Madras, on the 16th September 1859, for breach of official confidence and of his duty as Accountant-General; and remained unemployed until the 18th February 1860, the date of his removal from the service.

3. A Collector and Magistrate was suspended from office, on the 4th October 1869, for a period of two years for breach of duty in having had pecuniary dealings with a Rajah in his district.

4. A Sub-Collector and Magistrate was removed from his appointment, from 16th April 1860 to 28th June 1861, for having had pecuniary dealings in his district through a subordinate.

5. A Civil and Session Judge resigned his appointment and remained without employ between the 8th June and 31st December 1860, when he obtained his annuity.

6. A Collector and Magistrate was permitted on the score of health to resign his appointment and complete his remaining necessary residence in India of three months on subsistence allowance, from 1st June to 1st September 1869.

7. A Subordinate Judge was thrown out of employ on the abolition of his Court on the Neilgherries on the 1st October 1863, and in consequence of ill-health, and no appointment suitable to his state of health being vacant, he was permitted to remain at his previous station until the 31st January 1866, when he proceeded on furlough and eventually retired.

8. A Sub-Collector was removed from his appointment on the 9th October 1866 for having resided, more or less continuously, at a hill station in his division, and left the administration of his charge in great measure in the hands of his subordinates. He was re-employed on the 3rd December 1866.

9. An Assistant Collector was removed from his appointment, on the 15th September 1869, until he passed the prescribed standard of examination, which he did on the 18th December 1869.

10. For the same reason two other Assistant Collectors were removed on the 27th August and 1st September 1870. They were re-employed on the 17th December 1870, the date on which they passed the necessary examination.

11. An Acting Head Assistant Collector was suspended, on the 4th November 1870, for a period of three months for assaulting Natives and habitually using towards them profane and abusive language.

12. Another Acting Head Assistant was suspended from duty, on the 29th May 1872, owing to his pecuniary embarrassments, and was restored to his appointment, on the 1st August 1872, under orders from the Secretary of State.
