No. 3. Read the following letter from D. BARBOUR, Esq., Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Simla, 13th August 1872, No. 2677 :—

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 799, of the 21st June 1872, submitting a representation regarding the allowances of Mr. F. C. Carr, of the Covenanted Civil Service, with reference to Rules 7 (a) and 7 (b) (1) in Chapter VIII. of the Civil Leave Code.

2. In reply, I am desired to observe that, as the office of Collector and Agent in Ganjam is more highly paid than that of Civil and Sessions Judge of Tinnevelly, it is inferred that Mr. Carr was transferred to the latter office on the return to the former of the permanent incumbent, or of some officer having a "superior lien" on it, and to request that, if this inference be incorrect, you will, with the permission of His Excellency the Governor in Council, report under what circumstances Mr. Carr was transferred from Ganjam to Tinnevelly. If Mr. Carr was replaced at Ganjam by an officer having a superior lien on the appointment, his claim to acting allowance in transit from Ganjam to Tinnevelly should have been negatived under Rule 7 (b) (3), Chapter VIII., and not under Rule 7 (b) (1).

Ordered that a copy of the foregoing correspondence be forwarded to the Accountant-General, Madras, with the request that he will report under what circumstances Mr. Carr was transferred, and why he was permitted to draw acting allowance for the period of transit from Calicut to Vizagapatam, and explain the discrepancy between the statement in his letter, No. 7043, of the 24th January 1872, that Mr. Carr drew pay "without any acting allowance" for the period during which he was in transit from Vizagapatam to Ganjam, and the statement of the Government of Fort St. George that he drew for that period "the acting allowance he had received at Vizagapatam."

No. 4. To the Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Fort St. George, 2nd December 1872, No. 1596.

In reply to your Officiating Under Secretary's letter, No. 2677, dated 13th August 1872, I am directed to state that the reason for transferring Mr. Carr from the Ganjam Acting Collector's post to that of Acting Judge of Tinnevelly was because the vacancy in the Court it was known would shortly become absolute, and that thus opportunity would offer for confirming Mr. Carr in the higher grade to which he was entitled to be promoted, and in the branch of the service in which it was desired to retain his services permanently.

Chief Secretary.

Sir

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 2677. dated 13th Sept. 72. I am directed to state that the reason for transferring Mr. Carr from the Bengal to the Madras establishment was that the Madras Judges of Admiralty had become aware of the vacancy in the 1st class which would occur on the retirement of Mr. Norton, and that this opportunity was offered for confirming Mr. Carr in the higher grade to which he was entitled to be promoted in the branch of the service in which he was retained and retains his services pending the
