No. 100.

Date. { 22d November 1871

From,

The Acting And President. M. C.
COLLECTOR OF
BELLARY

To

The Chief Secretary to Government

Madras.

Sir

In a notification dated 18th May 1869 and published at page 728 C of the Fort St. George Gazette dated 18th May 1869, the boundaries of the Municipality of Anantapur, in this District were defined.

2. The Commissioners consider it very desirable to alter the Southern boundary so as to include a bundy stand and a Traveller's Bungalow situated just outside the limits. I have the honor therefore to request that the Government will be pleased to issue a revised notification.

3. It might run thus.

"South and West: a line from boundary stone No 2 to the Bungalore road at the bridge over the waste water channel, thence the Bangalore road as far as the bundy stand, whence the boundary may be a circuit to enclose the bundy stand and Traveller's Bungalow turning along the road to the bridge, thence to boundary stone No. 4 in Paddy field 22" &c &c. &c.

A map is enclosed showing the proposed alteration.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obdt. Servant.

from boundary stone No. 2 to the Bangalore road at the bridge over the waste water Channel, thence along the Bangalore
road to the bandy stand, thence round the bandy stand and the travellers Bungalow compound to the Bangalore road, thence returning along the Bangalore road to the bridge, thence to boundary stone No. 4 in Paddy field 22, thence a line to another bridge over the channel aforesaid on the Bellary road, thence the Bellary road as far as the turning to Alamoor where the boundary makes a circuit to enclose the bungalows occupied by the European residents, returning along the road to the bridge.
Thence to boundary stone No. 16 at North-West angle of the Municipality.
