Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,

8th March 1872.

No. 87. Read the following letter from the President of the Municipal Commission, Coimbatore, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Coimbatore, 7th February 1872, No. 3 :—

Under Section 165 of the Towns' Improvement Act III. of 1871 (Madras), I have the honour to enclose, for early approval and confirmation by Government, a bye-law framed by the Commissioners of the Coimbatore Municipality in connexion with the market.

BYE-LAW.

"No fruit, vegetables, or meat shall be permitted to be exposed for sale in any street or thoroughfare within municipal limits of the town, except in such place or places expressly set apart, or that may hereafter be set apart, for such purpose by the Municipality. Any infringement of the above bye-law will subject the party or parties, on conviction before a Magistrate, to a fine not exceeding 20 Rupees."

No. 88. ORDER THEREON, 8th March 1872, No. 266.

The President will report whether a strict interpretation of the bye-law will lead to the closing of any existing customary bazaar or market.

Short Hand Explanation

There being insufficient room in the Town for the sale of vegetables which were being exposed on the road side, and the places where meat was sold being in a very insanitary State, by over open drains in the heart of a crowded part of the Town, the Commissioners Constructed vegetable, meat, and grain market. In order that the same may be utilized the following bye Law for the prevention of former nuisance, is passed by the Commissioners is forwarded for the sanction of Government. It is nearly the same as that which is in force in the Bangalore Municipality —

" No fruit, vegetables or meat, shall be permitted to be

" exposed for sale in any street or thoroughfare within Municipal

" limits of the Town except in such place or places expressly

" set a part or that may hereafter be set a part for such purpose by the Municipality :-

" Any infringement of the above bye law will subject

" the party or parties on conviction before a Magistrate to a

" fine not exceeding 20 Rupees.
