Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,

11*th March* 1872.

No. 95. Read the following letter from the Acting Commissioner of Police, to the Officiating Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 5th March 1872, No. 21:—

I have the honour to report that, in consequence of several first-class witnesses having been cited to give evidence at the last sessions before the High Court, the grant in my budget of Rupees 5,000 to meet "Unforeseen Contingencies" under head "Law and Justice" has been exceeded by about Rupees 376, and to request that sanction may be accorded for the amount being disbursed by the Accountant-General from general savings under "Law and Justice;" this will close the account for the year.
