Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
11th March 1872.

No. 115. Read the following Proceedings of the Government of India in the Financial Department, dated Fort William, 31st January 1872, No. 836 (Accounts):—

Read—

Proceedings of the Public Works Department, No. 443-AB, dated 15th December 1871, forwarding a letter from the Government of Bombay, enquiring whether expenditure by the Public Works Department on Salt buildings is debitable to Imperial or to Provincial Funds.

RESOLUTION.—The previous outlay on Public Works for the Salt Department having been reckoned as Provincial, in settling the assignment for Provincial Services, and reserving the Imperial portion in the general Public Works Grant, the Governor-General in Council is pleased to rule that, expenditure for Petty Construction and Repairs of buildings in the Salt Department, save any connected with the Imperial Customs Line, should be treated as a Provincial charge.

Ordered that a copy of the foregoing Resolution be forwarded to the Public Works Department, the Home Department, the Department of Agriculture, Revenue, and Commerce, the several Local Governments and Administrations; the Comptroller-General, and the several Accountants-General and Deputy Accountants-General in independent charge, in continuation of Financial Resolution, No. 1659, dated 20th March 1871.
