Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
13th March 1872.

No. 132. Read the following letter from P. WHALLEY, Esq., Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Agriculture, Revenue, and Commerce, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Fort William, 19th February 1872, No. 14 :—

With reference to the different municipal budgets and reports reviewed in the Proceedings of the Madras Government (Public Department) for October 1871, I am directed to request that you will be good enough to inform the Government of India by what rules State contributions to Municipalities in Madras are regulated, and from what funds they are made.

No. 133. To the Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Agriculture, Revenue, and Commerce, dated Fort St. George, 13th March 1872, No. 307.

In reply to Mr. Officiating Under Secretary Whalley's letter, dated 19th February 1872, No. 14, I am directed to inform you that State contributions to Municipalities were paid under Section 25, Act X. of 1865 (Madras), and to forward copy of G. O., 16th August 1870, No. 1033, Public Department, which shows the interpretation put by this Government on the terms of the Section in question.

2. Act X. of 1865 was repealed by Act III. of 1871, which came into force on the 1st April 1871, and the adjustments directed in the orders referred to in the letter under reply are being made from provincial funds. The adjustments were on account of the year 1870-71. Prior to 1st April 1871 the contributions were paid from imperial funds. No contributions are payable under Act III. of 1871.
