No. 144. Read the following letter from the President of the Municipal Commission, Trichinopoly, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Trichinopoly, 12th February 1872, No. 5:—

I have the honour to submit the accompanying Table of Bye-laws proposed to be adopted in the Municipal Town of Srirungam, and I request that you will be good enough to obtain and communicate to me the requisite sanction of Government at an early date.

Bye-Laws.

1. No one shall commit a nuisance in the dry bed of any river, water-course, tank, &c., within the municipal limits.

2. Every well shall be protected by a wall three feet high from the surface of the ground.

3. No cart, or vehicle without springs, shall be used on any portion of the road except on the sides thereof.

4. All carriages and carts shall, in meeting other conveyances, leave them to the right-hand side, and in passing them, leave them to the left-hand side.

5. All authenticated copies of original registration on licenses shall be given on the payment of a fee of 4 Annas for each such copy.

6. The owners or occupiers of houses abutting on the roads shall keep the walls, hedges, and existing boundary marks in good repair and in such order as regards height, size, or other particulars as may, from time to time, be ordered by the Commissioners in writing.

7. The external walls of houses, yards, &c., bounding the public ways, shall be lime-washed once at least annually, unless specially exempted by the Commissioners. Such lime-washing shall be effected before the 1st November in each year.

8. If the lime-washing shall not be performed within the time, or as often as specified above by the owner or occupier of the building, it shall be done by the Municipal Commissioners, and the expenses incurred therein shall be recovered in the same way as arrears of rates on houses, &c., are recoverable under Section 53 of Act III. of 1871.

9. All pigs shall be kept confined within an enclosure. Any found straying in the streets, or other public places, will be liable to be destroyed, or the owner thereof prosecuted for a breach of this bye-law.

10. No article shall be exposed for sale in any street so as to cause obstruction to the public.

11. No person shall dry bratties on the external walls of houses or yards adjoining the public street.

12. No person shall make use of the pavement or veranda of his house, or of any place not specially intended for such purpose, in front of his house, or by the side of any street, as a stable or stall for keeping horses, ponies, bullocks, cows, buffalows or any other animals.

13. No person afflicted with noxious or loathsome disease shall vend or offer for sale any article of food.

14. Whoever shall commit any breach of any bye-laws, or by neglecting to do any act directed to be done by any such bye-laws, or in any wise howsoever, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 20 Rupees, and, in the case of a continuing breach, to a further penalty not exceeding 10 Rupees for every day during which the breach is continued after the conviction for the offence.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
14th March 1872.

No. 145. ORDER THEREON, 14th March 1872, No. 314.

Bye-laws Nos. 1, 2, 4, 5, 7, 10, 11, 12, and 13 are sanctioned, and should be published for one month in the Trichinopoly District Gazette.

2. No. 3 is disallowed. Restrictions of the kind ought not to be enforced unless the sides of the road are constructed of the same material and kept in the same condition as the centre.

3. No. 6 is disallowed. The provisions of the Act as regards ruinous walls and height of hedges are sufficient. The Commissioners have nothing to do with boundary marks.

4. No. 8 will be approved should the words "as a debt due to the Municipal Commissioners" be substituted for "as arrears of rates on houses, &c., are recoverable under Section 53 of Act III. of 1871." Section 164 of the Act applies, and the Government cannot authorize summary process for recovery of the expenses in question.

5. No. 9 is disallowed as involving unnecessary interference with private property.

6. In No. 14, the penalty clause, for "or by neglecting, &c.," it would appear that "either by neglecting, &c.," should be read and for "after conviction for the offence," "after written notice from the Commissioners." With those modifications the clause is approved and may be published.
