Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
8th April 1872.

2. The transfer of Rupees 14,013 to the head "Sanitary—Miscellaneous" for expenditure on tanks and wells and village roads seems inadmissible. The amount of the additional appropriation from the one-third Land Cess to the Road Fund in the sanctioned budget is Rupees 6,100; and transfers in excess of this amount from the Road Fund would be opposed to law. If the balance Rupees 7,913 is spent on village roads the outlay will be unobjectionable; but it should be debited to the Road Fund.

I am not quite sure that I understand correctly my understanding of the orders - I understand the estimates - the sanctioned Rs 6100 - from the 1/3 cess not absorbed by Loans & Roads - it was then ascertained that there was not expended - and that a further sum of Rs 7913 - of the Local fund is also not wanted - I would therefore like to know if I am to transfer to the Local & Local & then to the Road Board Rs 1[illegible]

SUBJECT.

Sanctioning certain transfers from the Road Fund to the appropriation for Village roads.

8 April 72 No. 484.

The Sec.y has no objection to the transfer of Rs 7500 for road works.

2, The transfer of Rs 14,913 to the head Sanitary Miscellaneous for expenditure on tanks and village roads, seems inadmissible. The amount of the additional appropriation from the Road Fund in the sanctioned budget is Rs 6100; and a transfer of ½ in lieu of this amount from the road fund would be opposed by Govt. If the balance Rs 8,913 in Sanitary village roads the outlay will be unobjectionable; but it must be debited to the road fund.
