No. 61. From the Acting Accountant-General, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George, dated Fort St. George, 5th January 1872, No. 477.

Audit Department.

I have the honour with reference to your Official Memorandum, No. 1, dated the 2nd instant, to report that the conditional leaves granted to the under-mentioned Covenanted Civil Servants will become available to them according to the Government Gazette on the dates given opposite their respective names, but those dates would necessarily vary if the Officers, whose leaves are expected to expire before each of those dates, should be granted extensions of leave.

2. With reference, however, to the enclosed letter, in original, just received from Mr. Hughesdon, I beg to be informed whether priority of application is to be taken into consideration in determining a gentleman's right to leave before others.

3. In conclusion, I beg to observe that no intimation has yet been received in this office as to whether Messrs. Maclean and LeFanu, whose leaves have already expired, have returned to duty, or have been granted extensions of leave.

No. 63. ORDER THEREON, 16th January 1872, No. 49.

Ordered that the following Notification be published in the Fort St. George Gazette :—

NOTIFICATION.

Under Subsidiary Rule, Section 16 of the Covenanted Civil Service Leave Code, furlough or special leave may not be granted to more than one-fifth of the total number of the Members of the Service, except on medical certificate, or on very urgent private affairs. Applications, not so supported, are to be complied with in due order under the same section, according to amount of furlough at credit or, in case of equality of applicants in this respect, then with reference to longest service in India since last arrival, or if equal in both respects, then in accordance with seniority.

2. The total admissible number of absentees under this rule in the Madras Presidency is at present thirty-three, the service aggregating 168 in number, but at the present moment there are thirty-nine Covenanted Civilians absent, and no ordinary furlough can, therefore, be granted, until this number is reduced below the normal standard.

3. Applications have been received from the following gentlemen, and will be complied with as the state of the Absentee List may permit, in the order in which they are named, which has been settled under the rule :—

1. Mr. J. H. Garstin.
2. ,, W. Hodgson.
3. ,, H. P. Gordon.
4. ,, J. Kelsall.
5. Mr. C. A. Galton.
6. ,, J. C. Hughesdon.
7. ,, A. J. Stuart.

My dear Rhodes.

In the G. O. each man's leave was entered as given from a certain date which led to our taking that date as our guide in calculating when each man could go on leave supposing the absentees had returned in time to enable him to do so — For the future it will be as well to forgive men as granted leave without
