Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 19th April 1872.

No. 247. Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Fort William, 14th March 1872, No. 2365:—

Leave and Allowances.

I am directed to invite the attention of the Government of Madras to the papers published in the Gazette of India of 17th February 1872, regarding new Leave Rules for Uncovenanted Servants, and to the requisition of the Secretary of State for a nominal list of officers holding certain classes of appointments (namely, those mentioned in the list which accompanied the Despatch of the Government of India, No. 4, dated 23rd March 1869) to whom it may be considered proper to extend the benefits of the New Rules.

2. To such officers of those classes as have been appointed by the Secretary of State the rules have already been declared applicable; and it now remains to prepare, for submission to the Secretary of State, nominal lists, as prescribed by His Grace in the concluding paragraph of his Despatch, No. 451, dated 6th December 1871, of officers of those classes appointed in India to whom the description in the second sentence* of the 7th paragraph of the Despatch may be considered to apply. It will be observed from the Despatch of the Secretary of State last quoted that no officers hereafter appointed in India can be admitted to the benefits of the New Rules unless their appointment has the sanction of His Grace.

* "This benefit is also due to those Europeans who, for special reasons, may have been appointed in India to certain exceptional posts."

No. 248. ORDER THEREON, 19th April 1872, No. 543.

In paragraph 6 of the Secretary of State's Despatch dated 10th March 1870, it is prescribed that the New Uncovenanted Service Leave Rules shall apply "only to Officers of the Educational Department appointed from England and to such others of those now actually in the service as" the Government "may think fit to include in a nominal list for that purpose to be submitted for" the Secretary of State's "approval."

2. In paragraph 7 of the Despatch dated 6th December 1871, it is provided that "Uncovenanted Servants appointed in England to offices for which they have special qualifications" shall have the benefit of the New Rules and that "this benefit is also due to those Europeans who, for special reasons, may have been or with" the Secretary of State's "sanction may hereafter be appointed in India to certain exceptional posts."

3. In paragraph 8 the Secretary of State again desires to be furnished with a nominal list of the officers coming within the description referred to in paragraph 6 of the Despatch of 10th March 1870 above quoted, and a "statement showing the first appointment of each officer to the Service, by what authority and at what date the appointment was made, and the offices subsequently held by him."

4. The Government of India, in their letter above recorded, draw attention to this requirement and to the list attached to the Draft Rules for leave of absence which accompanied their Despatch of 23rd March 1869 to the Secretary of State

(and which is printed at page 411 of the Fort St. George Gazette of 28th February 1872) as indicating the classes of appointments to the holders of which it may be considered proper to extend the benefit of the new Rules.

These would include for this Presidency—

I. All officers holding appointments of the classes usually held by Covenanted Civil Servants, or by Commissioned Military Officers.

II. Financial Department.—Officers of the fifth grade and upwards.
Deputy Collector of Sea Customs.
Presidency Postmasters and Chief Inspectors and upwards.

III. Public Works Department.—Assistant Engineers of the third grade and upwards.
Assistant Controllers of Accounts and upwards.
Assistant Conservator of Forests and upwards.

IV. Home Department.—Director of Public Instruction and all graded officers of the Educational Department.
Officers of Settlement Department above rank of Deputy Collectors.
Officers of Police of rank of District Superintendents and upwards.
Officers of Revenue Survey of grade of Assistant Surveyor and upwards.
Uncovenanted Medical Officers.
Judges and Registrars of Presidency Town Small Cause Courts.
Magistrates of Police at Presidency.
Registrars of High Court.
Inspector-General of Registration.
Clerks of the Crown.

V. Foreign Department.—Assistant Superintendent, Telegraph Department, and upwards.
Assistant Political Agents.

VI. Assistant Secretaries to Government.
Master Attendants.
Deputy and Assistant Master Attendants.
Superintendent of Government Printing.

5. The officers omitted are in the Opium, Land Customs, and Geological Survey Departments, in which no appointments are made by this Government or are held under it.

6. The Accountant-General will prepare and submit a nominal list of Uncovenanted Officers holding any of the appointments in the above list, with the particulars as to appointment and service required by the Secretary of State, and a supplemental list of any other Uncovenanted Servants in analogous position or rank, whom, in his opinion, it would be right to place in the same position as regards leave.

7. The lists will be revised and added to as may appear necessary under orders of Government; for it is evident that some of the officers designated, as, for example, Assistant Surveyors in Revenue Survey, are not in this Presidency of the class by which superior advantages in respect to leave can fairly be claimed, the main distinction in the rules being apparently that the maximum of furlough allow-

Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Dept. dated 14th March 1872 No 2365.

Order thereon 19th April 1872 No 543.

In para 6 of the Secretary of State's Despatch dated 10th March 1870, it is prescribed that the New Uncovenanted Service leave rules shall apply "only to officers of the Educational Department appointed from England, and to such others of those now actually in the Service as" the Government "may think fit to include in a nominal list for that purpose to be submitted for "the Secretary of State's" approval."

In para 7 of the Despatch dated 6th Dec 1871 it it is provided that "Uncovenanted Servants appointed in England to offices for which they have special qualifications" shall have the benefit of the New Rules and that "this benefit is also due to those Europeans who for special reasons may have been or with "the Secretary of States" "sanction may hereafter be appointed in India to certain exceptional posts."

In para 8 the Secretary of State again desires to be furnished with a nominal list of the officers coming within the description referred to in para 6 of the Despatch of 10th March 1870 above quoted and a statement showing the first appointment of each officer to the Service, by what authority and at what date the appointment was made, and the offices subsequently held by him".

The Government of India in their letter above recorded draw attention to this requirement and to the list attached to the draft rules for leave of absence which accompanied their Despatch of 23d March 1869 to the Secretary of State (and which is printed at page 411 of the Fort St George Gazette of 28th February 1872) as indicating the classes of appointments to the holders of which it may be considered proper to extend the benefit of the new rules.

Inspector General of Registration.
Clerks of the Crown.

V. Foreign Dept. Assistant Superintendent Telegraph Department & upwards.
Assistant Political Agents.

VI. Assistant Secretaries to Government.
Master Attendants.
Deputy & Assistant Master Attendants.
Superintendent of Government Printing.

The officers omitted are in the Opium, Land Customs and Geological Survey Departts. in which no appointments are made by this Government or are held under it.

The Accountant General will prepare & submit a nominal list of Uncovenanted officers holding any of the appointments in the above list with the particulars as to appointments & Service required by the Secretary of State & a Supplemental list of any other Uncovenanted Servants in analogous position or rank to whom it would be right to place in the same position as regards leave.

The lists will be revised & added to as may appear necessary, under orders of Govt. for it is evident that some of the officers designated, as ~~Deputy~~ Assistant Surveyors in Revenue Survey are not in this Survey of the class by which superior advantages in respect to leave can fairly be claimed.
