Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,

23rd January 1872.

No. 91. Read the following Resolution of the Government of India in the Financial Department, dated Fort William, 9th January 1872, No. 90:—

Pensions and Gratuities.

The Governor-General in Council desires to remind local Governments and Administrations that, under the Uncovenanted Service Pension Rules, no pension or gratuity can be given to an officer removed from the service for misconduct or inefficiency. One or two cases have recently occurred where the Government of India has been obliged to refuse sanction to orders of local Governments removing an officer to the Pension List on account of misbehaviour.

Ordered that the foregoing Resolution be communicated to the several Departments of the Governments of India, the several local Governments and Administrations, the Comptroller-General, the several Accountants-General, and the several Deputy Accountants-General in independent charge.
