No. 145. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 21st June 1872, No. 4439 (Miscellaneous):—

Read the following letter from Assistant-Surgeon D. KEARNEY, in medical charge of Native Details, St. Thomas' Mount, to the Deputy Inspector-General, Indian Medical Department, Presidency Division, dated St. Thomas' Mount, 26th May 1872, No. 68:—

In reference to docket,* No. 2786, dated 23rd May 1872, received this day, I have the honour to reply as follows:—

*Memorandum No. 2255, from Secretary to Inspector-General, dated 21st May 1872.

1. No dead-house has been erected at St. Thomas' Mount agreeably to G. O., No. 545, of 5th April 1869, up to the present time.

2. Post-mortem examinations are now conducted in the latrine for Europeans attached to the Lock Hospital. Before I joined this station these examinations took place in the compound of the Lock Hospital; but since, as the surrounding wall was blown down, I have been compelled, in order to prevent public exposure, to utilize the available latrine as a temporary dead-house.

No. 3523.

To the Secretary, Revenue Board, for favour of submission to Revenue Board for orders.

2. Of all the places near Madras, a Civil Hospital with a dead-room is needed at the Mount.

3. There is no Civil Hospital for in-patients nearer those of Chingleput and Madras.

4. Perhaps the Board could refer the matter to the Collector of Chingleput for consideration and report.

MADRAS,
1st June 1872.

(Signed) E. BALFOUR,
Inspector-General of Hospitals, I. M. D.

The Board resolve to submit this reminder that a dead-house is wanted at the Mount for the orders of Government.

2. The building is required for post-mortem examinations, so that it cannot be erected out of Local Funds.
