Financial Dept. Sir,

I am directed by the Secretary of State in Council to enquire whether the Government of Madras has any objection to the charges on account of European Pensions being transferred from the Imperial to the Provincial Services with the amounts provided for such charges in the Estimate of 1873-74.

2 I am directed also to state that, if hereafter the charge should develope seriously, the Imperial Government would be prepared to increase the grant of the provincial Establishment should need of it.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your most obedient Servant
