Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
23rd July 1873.

No. 169. Read the following circular from H. A. MANGLES, Esq., Officiating Comptroller-General, to all Accountants-General, dated Calcutta, 30th June 1873, No. 152:—

I have the honour to inform you that the Government of India, in the Financial Department, recently directed that, in cases of non-receipt of advices, Treasury Officers might pay to well-known mercantile firms and banks having large dealings in Money Orders the amounts of their Money Orders on presentation, provided they were willing to give a written guarantee to refund without demur the amount of any order which would not have been paid had the advice been received in time to expose a fraud or an irregularity.

2. The Government of India have now extended this concession to all well-known persons and offices.

3. I have to request that you will communicate these orders to all Treasury Officers in your $\frac{\text{Presidency.}}{\text{Province.}}$

No. 387.

Copy forwarded to the Secretary to the Government of Madras for information.
