No. 103. [Read the following letter from R. W. BARLOW, Esq., President of the Municipal Commission, Conjeveram, to the Hon. W. HUDLESTON, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated 19th July 1873, No. 62:—

Adverting to paragraph 3 of the Proceedings of Government, Financial Department, dated 29th May 1872, No. 699, I have the honour to state that, sometime since, Mr. Crole brought to my notice, in conversation, the inconvenience that would be caused to his Revenue and Magisterial duties from having to proceed to Conjeveram once in every month, the distance being twenty-two miles and the road incomplete, so that, unless he went there alone, a portion of his office must spend four or five days in each month on the road between Conjeveram and Chingleput.

2. The work of the Sub-division is heavy, and the representation seems to me a reasonable one, and I, therefore, request a reconsideration of the order in question, and would respectfully suggest that he should only be required to attend one Municipal Meeting a quarter.

No. 104. ORDER THEREON, 15th August 1873, No. 1161.

The Sub-Collector will be required to attend the meetings of the Municipal Commissioners of Conjeveram every other month, so long as there is no recurrence of the mismanagement which led to the former order being issued.
