Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
22nd August 1873.

No. 142. Read the following circular from R. B. CHAPMAN, Esq., Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Comptroller-General and to all Accountants-General, dated Simla, 7th August 1873, No. 2052:—

Applications for sanction for expendi ure are sometimes made to Accountants-General or to the Comptroller-General, and by these officers forwarded to the Local Government or the Government of India, as the case may be.

2. This procedure is wrong in principle, and often inconvenient in its results.

3. In future, therefore, whenever such an application, or any application for relaxation of the Leave or Pension Rules and the like, reaches an officer in the Account Department he should simply return it, referring the officer making it to the proper executive authority.

Copy forwarded to the several Departments of the Government of India and to the several Local Governments.
