Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
29th August 1873.

No. 220. Read the following letter from J. H. MASTER, Esq., Collector of Bellary, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Bellary, 14th August 1873, No. 44 :—

I have the honour to submit the drafts of three bye-laws which have met with the approval of the Municipal Commissioners of the Town of Bellary, and to request that you will be good enough to obtain sanction of Government for the same.

2. In Bellary, we have a great number of Mussulmans of the lower class, and ram-fighting, a sport much patronized by them, has become quite a nuisance.

Bye-laws proposed by the Bellary Municipal Commission.

The practice of feeding milch kine and slaughter cattle on stable-litter and other refuse is strictly prohibited, and any person residing within municipal limits who shall transgress this rule will, on conviction before a Magistrate, subject himself to a fine of Rupees 10 for the first, and Rupees 20 for each succeeding offence.

Any person found gambling, or cock-fighting, or ram-fighting in any public street, thoroughfare, or open place, or taking in procession through such public streets, thoroughfares, or open places such cocks or rams, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rupees 20 for each offence.

That owners or occupiers of garden houses and lands within the Municipality of Bellary be required, when called upon, to erect suitable latrines for the use of the occupants of such houses and lands.

No. 221. ORDER THEREON, 29th August 1873, No. 1231.

The Governor in Council approves and sanctions the proposed bye-laws, and directs that they be published as required by law.
