No. 1. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 26th August 1873, No. 5434 (Miscellaneous):—

Read the following letter from B. HORSBRUGH, Esq., Acting President of the Local Fund Board, Coimbatore, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Coimbatore, 30th July 1873, No. 32:—

In G.O., No. 1135, of 26th August 1872, the Government sanctioned the levy of House-tax at Sooloor from 1st April 1872. But before the House-tax was collected it was abolished by Government in G.O., No. 426, of 28th March 1873, from 1st April 1873. The Local Board have resolved to address Government as to whether the arrears of House-tax due for 1872-73 may not be recovered. I have the honour to request that orders of Government may be obtained on this point.

2. The Local Board received charge of this school from the late Rate School Committee in 1871-72 with a balance of its late funds of Rupees 25-9-2. The Local Board have spent the following sums from their General Funds during the past two years, viz.:—

being Rupees 176-2-8* in excess of the funds received over by the Board. There is, again, an estimate of Rupees 2,630, for constructing a school-house, waiting for provision of funds, for which purposes the Board wish to reimburse themselves from the proceeds of the House-tax if sanctioned to be levied.

No. 2. ORDER THEREON, 3rd September 1873, No. 1240.

The discontinuance of the House-tax for the future did not relieve those assessed to it from liabilities already incurred; but, in view of the special unpopularity that must attach to the collection of arrears under the circumstances of the case, the Government consider that the Local Fund Board should exercise great discrimination in the enforcement of the demand.
