No. 104. Read the following letter from R. K. PUCKLE, Esq., Collector of Tinnevelly, to the Hon. W. HUDLESTON, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Nannagaram, 10th September 1873, No. 469 :—

I have the honour to forward a letter from Mr. Arundel, the Officiating Additional Sub-Collector, regarding the stoppage of Rupees 1,427-15-6 of his allowances during his absence on three months' privilege leave.

2. Mr. Arundel was an Acting Head Assistant before he was appointed to officiate as Additional Sub-Collector, and had he continued in the lower appointment would have drawn 200 Rupees a-month more while absent on leave than has been passed to him by the Accountant-General on the grounds that he now holds a special appointment for a limited time and is not, therefore, entitled to any portion of the allowances.

3. The appointment alluded to corresponds to that of a Deputy Director of Revenue Settlement, the allowances of which appointment have, in my own case, been passed during my absence on leave.

4. As Mr. Arundel has rendered me great assistance and has well deserved his leave I trust that his case may receive the favourable consideration of Government.

From A. T. ARUNDEL, Esq., Officiating Additional Sub-Collector of Tinnevelly, to R. K. PUCKLE, Esq., Collector of Tinnevelly, dated Nannagaram, 30th August 1873, No. 54.

In forwarding a copy of the Deputy Accountant-General's Objection Statement disallowing the sum of Rupees 1,427-15-6 out of the salary drawn by me during three months' privilege leave, I have the honour to request that you will be good enough to submit the matter for the favourable consideration of Government.

2. By Rule I., Section 21 of the Civil Leave Code, an officer holding "an appointment sanctioned only for a limited time and for a special purpose is not entitled, during privilege leave, to any special allowance attached to the appointment." Under this rule the Deputy Accountant-General has objected to pass my allowance as Officiating Additional Sub-Collector, amounting to Rupees 1,075-4-5 per mensem, and has admitted only my allowance as Assistant Collector of Tanjore, amounting to Rupees 602 per month.

3. The appointment I hold has been sanctioned "during the revision of the assessment of the district by the Collector," and can hardly be called an appointment for a limited time though it is for a special purpose. It is uncertain how long a time will be required to complete the sanctioned revision of the assessment in the five river-irrigated taluqs of the district—probably two more years ; and it is certain that, if Government should direct the resettlement of the whole district, several additional years will be required.

4. The greater part of my three months' privilege leave was accumulated before I was appointed to my present post, and as Acting Head Assistant I should have been entitled to draw, while on leave, Rupees 200 per month more than has now been passed by the Deputy Accountant-General.

5. I may add that my time of leave was so arranged in communication with you that no additional expense in the Settlement allotment was incurred by the appointment of an officer to act during my absence.

No. 105. ORDER THEREON, 19th September 1873, No. 1327.

The Accountant-General is authorized to pass Mr. Arundel's special allowances while on privilege leave.

2. The rule in question was evidently not intended to touch such a case.
