No. 157. Read the following letter from J. R. DANIEL, Esq., Acting Collector of Vizagapatam, to the Hon. W. HUDLESTON, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Vizianagram, 5th September 1873, No. 1315 :—

I have the honour to refer the following case for the orders of Government.

2. The Rani of Bobbili holds a Government Promissory Note, No. 002317, of four per cent. loan of 1835-36, which now stands in the name

Rajah Seetarama Krishna Royadapa Rungarow Bahadoor, Administrator of Rajah Swatachelaputty Rungarow Bahadoor.

3. The first named is the late husband of the Rani, and the second the adoptive father of her husband.

4. Her husband, Seetarama Krishna Royadapa Rungarow Bahadoor, obtained a certificate from the Civil Court, under Act XXVII. of 1860, on June 30th, 1863, to collect the debts, &c., of his adoptive father, Rajah Swatachelaputty Rungarow ; and, as required by Section 8 of the Act, the power to receive interest or dividends on Government Securities belonging to the estate of the deceased, and also to negotiate them, was expressly given, and this promissory note expressly mentioned.

5. The note, then, No. 6912 stood in the name of Rajah Swatachelaputty Rungarow, and it was sent to the Secretary and Treasurer, Bank of Bengal, for renewal ; the note was returned with his letter, January 3rd, 1867, to the Deputy Collector requesting him to certify on the reverse of the note that the certificate granted under Act XXVII. empowered negotiation ; the Deputy Collector returned the note February 13th, 1867, with a certificate endorsed on the back that it empowered Seetarama Krishna Royadapa Rungarow to negotiate the note, and the note was renewed as it stands now :

Rajah Seetarama Kristna Royadapa Rungarow Bahadoor, Administrator of Rajah Swatachelaputty Rungarow Bahadoor.

6. On the death of her husband, Seetarama Krishna Royadapa Rungarow, the present Rani applied for, and obtained, a certificate under Act XXVII. of 1860, and the power was given in express words to be as required by Section 8 to receive interest and dividends on, and to negotiate this particular note.

7. The old note requires renewal, and it was sent by the Deputy Collector on January 22nd, 1872, for renewal in the name of the present Rani Sri Radzha Lakshmi Chellaya Rani Garu.

8. The note was returned February 5th, 1872, with a request that a certificate should be endorsed on the note that he had seen the certificate in the original estate of the late Rajah Swathachelaputty Rungarow, and that it empowered Sri Radzha Lakshmi Chellaya to negotiate.

9. On May 20th, 1872, the note was returned with the following endorsements :—

"I certify that I have seen the certificate under Act XXVII. of 1860, in the original estate of the late Rajah Swatachelaputty Rungarow Bahadoor, and that it empowers the late Sri Rajah Seetarama Krishna Royadapa Rungarow Bahadoor Garu to negotiate this note."

"I further certify that I have seen a like certificate in the estate of the late Sri Rajah Seetarama Krishna Royadapa Rungarow Bahadoor, and that it empowers Sri Radzha Lakshmi Chellaya Garu to negotiate this note.

" (Signed) H. RICHARDSON,
" Deputy Collector of Vizagapatam."

10. It was returned June 1st, 1872, on the ground that a certificate to the estate of her husband, Sri Rajah Seetarama Krishna Royadapa Rungarow, was not sufficient, but that a certificate to the original estate of Sri Rajah Swatachelaputty Rungarow was necessary to enable her to negotiate it.

11. The Rani applied for a certificate to the original estate, but the Civil Court in its Order, 7th June 1873, refused to give a fresh certificate on the ground that her husband has never been treated as Administrator, but as heir, and there was no room or occasion for granting a fresh certificate.

12. Subsequent attempts have been made to obtain the renewal of the note in the name of the present Rani on the ground that her husband was the heir, and not the Administrator to the estate of his late adopted father; but the Secretary and Treasurer refused to renew it without a certificate to the original estate, and the correspondence terminated July 12th, 1873.

13. No interest has been paid on the bond since, and none can be paid until the bond be renewed. The Rani appears to me to have a right to its renewal in her own name. She appears to have done everything she can, and I have, therefore, at her request, referred the matter to Government.

14. In the certificate granted to her she has the power granted to her to negotiate this note.

15. The description of the late Rajah Seetarama Krishna Royadapa Rungarow as Administrator was given to him by the Loan Office, whereas he was the adopted son and heir, and the representative of the deceased Rajah Swatachelaputty Rungarow Bahadoor, and there appears nothing to warrant such a description.

ORDER THEREON, dated 7th June 1873.

A certificate under Act XXVII. of 1860 was granted to petitioner's husband as Zemindar of Bobbili. Under that Act obtained this certificate as heir to the previous Zemindar. On his death his widow obtained certificate as his heir. Her husband has never been styled or treated as Administrator by this Court. There seems, therefore, no occasion or room for granting a fresh certificate in a matter already adjudicated as far as certificates under the Heirship Act can dispose of such claims.

Such being the case, administration in the original estate of Rajah Swatachelaputty Rungarow Bahadoor should be taken out by the party requiring a new note, and the requisitions contained in this Office Memorandum, No. 2573 (M. 573), dated 11th July 1872, should be complied with before the note is returned to this office. To The Honble W. Audleston
Chief Secretary to Government

Sir

I have the honor to refer the following case for the orders of Government.

2. The Raja of Bobbili holds a Government Promissory Note No 00231 of 4 per Cent loan of 1835/6 which now stands in the name of Rajah Sectarama krishna Royadapa Rungarow Bahadar.

Administrator of Rajah Swatachellaputty Rungarow Bahadar

3. The first named is the late husband of the Raja and the 2d the adoptive father of her husband.

4 Her husband Sectarama krishna Royadapa Rungarow Bahadar obtained a Certificate from the Civil Court under Act XXVII of 1860 on June 30th 1863 to collect the debts due of his adoptive father Rajah Swatachellaputty Rungarow and as required by Section VIII of the Act the Power to receive

receive interest or dividends on Government securities belonging to the Estate of the deceased and also to negociate them was expressly given and this Promissory Note expressly mentioned.

5 The note then No 6912 stood in the name of Rajah Swatachellapatty Rungarow and it was sent to the Secretary and Treasurer Bank of Bengal for renewal, the note was returned with his letter January 3d 1867 to the Deputy Collector requesting him to certify on the reverse of the note that the Certificate granted under Act XXVII empowered negociation, the Deputy Collector returned the note February 13th 1867 with a certificate endorsed on the back that it empowered Sutarama Krishna Royadapa Rungarow to negociate the note, and the note was renewed as it stands now:

Rajah Sutarama Krishna Royadappa
Rungarow Bahadar
administrator of Rajah Swatachellaputty
Rungarow Bahadar

On

6 On the death of her husband Suta-rama Krishna Royadappa Rungarow the present Rani applied for and obtained a Certificate under Act XXVII of 1860 and the power was given in Express words to be as required by Section 8 to receive interests and dividends on and to negociate this particular note.

7. The old note requires renewal and it was sent by the Deputy Collector on January 22-1872 for renewal in the name of the present Rani Sri Radza Lakomi Chellaya Rani Garu

8. The note was returned February 5th 1872 with a request that a Certificate should be endorsed on the note that he had seen the Certificate in the original Estate of the late Rajah Swathachellaputty Rungarow and that it empowered Sri Radza Lakshmi Chellaya to negociate.

9. On May 20th 1872 the note was returned with the following endorsements.

"I Certify that I have seen the Certificate under Act 27 of 1860 in the Original Estate of the late Rajah Swatta Chellaputty Rungarow Bahadar & that it empowers the late Shri Rajah Sutarama Krishna Rayadapa Rungarow Bahadar Garu to negociate this Note"

"I further Certify that I have seen a like Certificate in the Estate of the late Shri Rajah Sutarama Krishna Rayadapa Rungarow Bahadar & that it empowers Shri Rajah Lashmi Chellaya Garu to negociate this Note"

Sd/ H. Richardson
Depy. Coll.r S. Vizagapatam

10. It was returned June 1st 1872 on the ground that a Certificate to the Estate of her husband Sri Rajah Sutarama Krishna Royadappa Rungarow was not sufficient, but that a Certificate to the original Estate of Sri Rajah Swatachellapaty Rungarow was necessary to enable her to negociate it

11. The Rani applied for a Certificate to the original Estate but the Civil Court in its order June 7th 1873 refused to give a Fresh Certificate on the ground that her husband has never been treated as administrator but as heir, and there was no room or occasion for granting a Fresh Certificate.

12. Subsequent attempts have been made to obtain the renewal of the note in the name of the present Rani on the ground that her husband was the heir and not the administrator to the Estate of his late adopted father, but the Secretary and Treasurer refuse to renew it without a Certificate to the original Estate and the correspondence terminated July 12th 1873.

to

13. No interest has been paid on the bond since and none can be paid until the bond be renewed. The Rani appears to me to have a right to its renewal in her own name. She appears to have done everything she can and I have therefore at her request referred the matter to Government.

14. In the Certificate granted to her she has the power granted to her to negociate this note.

15. The discription of Rajah Sutarama Krishna Royadappa Rungarow as administrator was given to him by the Loan Office, whereas he is the adopted son and heir and the representative of the deceased and there appears nothing to warrant such a description

16. The present note belongs to the Estate of her deceased husband, and the Certificates already obtained are all that she can obtain.
