No. 135. Read the following letter from H. HUDSON, Esq., Deputy Accountant-General of Mysore, to the Hon. W. HUDLESTON, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Bangalore, 2nd October 1873, No. 827 :—

I have the honour, by desire of the Chief Commissioner of Mysore, to forward, herewith, for submission to His Excellency the Governor in Council, the Budget Estimate of Her Majesty's Treasury under this Administration for the year 1874-75.

No. 136. ORDER THEREON, 14th October 1873, No. 1500.

The Deputy Accountant-General in Mysore submits with his letter above recorded the Budget Estimate of Her Majesty's Treasury under the Mysore Administration for 1874-75.

2. The estimate shows that the probable receipts will be Rupees 25,32,400, being Rupees 767 in excess of the actuals* for 1872-73 and Rupees 4,080 less than the estimate for 1873-74. The excess is due chiefly to an increase in the anticipated receipts under "Madras Military and Medical Fund," and the decrease to the omission from the estimate of the collections from "Income-tax," which was calculated at Rupees 12,000 in the estimate for 1873-74. Explanation should, however, have been afforded by the Deputy Accountant-General as to the large estimated increase of Rupees 6,970 under "Sundry Miscellaneous Receipts" during 1874-75.†

* Rupees 25,31,633.

	Rs.
† 1873-74	30
1874-75	7,000
	6,970

3. The charges which are estimated at Rupees 33,455 are exclusive of the items debitable to Provincial Services. They fall short of the actuals for 1872-73 and the grant for the current year by Rupees 3,429 and Rupees 1,166, respectively. No explanation is given as to why provision should be made in 1874-75 for "Refund of miscellaneous items" when no corresponding provision was made in 1873-74, or what the nature of the items are. The provision under "Territorial Political Pensions" exceeds the current year's grant by Rupees 1,448, while there is a decrease under "Pagoda and Mosque Allowances" of Rupees 2,814.

4. The Governor in Council passes both estimates of receipts and charges for Rupees 25,32,400 and Rupees 33,455.
