No. 256. ORDER THEREON, 30th October 1873, No. 1580.

The Budget Estimate of Charges of the Civil Office of Account and Audit for the year 1874-75 amounts to Rupees 2,18,450, of which Rupees 2,15,360 are debitable to "15, Administration and Public Department" and Rupees 3,090 to "Law and Justice."

The excess over actuals is accounted for by the allowances actually drawn by the Accountant-General and Deputy Accountant-General having been considerably below the estimate. The decrease under the first head should have been explained in the Remarks column of the estimate; that under the second head is, it is observed, owing to one of the Assistants having acted for the Deputy and having drawn only acting allowances. 	RS.
Assistant Accountant-General	12,000
Probationer	3,000
Charges in connexion with Lithographic Press	500

3. As compared with the estimate for the past year there is a decrease under the following heads:—

Lithographic Press	500
Total	4,433

the net decrease, as shown above, being Rupees 1,811.
