Simla, the 22 October 1873.

Sir,

I am to request that, with the permission of His Excellency the Governor in Council, you will be good enough to furnish the Government of India with the following information:—

(1).—The number of Civilians of each grade required for employment in the ordinary Revenue and Judicial Departments of each district in Madras, with the number of such officers now employed in each district.

(2).—The number of appointments and the salary for which Civilians are required at the Presidency *

* e. g., for the Secretariat, High Court, Board of Revenue, &c.

(3).—The number of special† appointments, or of appointments in other than the ordinary Revenue and Judicial Departments, with the salaries attached to them for which Civilians are required.

† e. g. Superintendent of Excise; Registration and Settlement Departments.

(4).—The number of appointments not included under heads 1, 2 and 3, of which the salary is Rs. 1,000 and upwards, and for which civilians are not required.

(5).—The average number of vacancies every year from deaths and retirements, and the average number of absentees on leave of all kinds for periods exceeding three months.

2. I am to request the favour of an early reply.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

Jeron Plowden.

Offg. Under Secretary to the Government of India.
