Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
25th November 1873.

No. 148. Read the following letter from R. W. LODWICK, Esq., Accountant-General, to the Hon. W. HUDLESTON, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Fort St. George, 21st November 1873, No. 414 :—

Book Department.

Having been requested by the Comptroller-General to forward the accounts for 1872-73, for Provincial Services and Local Funds, I replied that they would be rendered in the usual form and recast afterwards; I have the honour, accordingly, to furnish the accounts for March 1873, and to observe that, when these accounts are recast, the balances on 31st March 1872, and 31st March 1873, for Provincial Services, will be reduced, while that for the Special Funds will be increased, because the transactions of the School Fee and Convict Labour Funds, which merged in the Provincial Services from 1871-72, will be shown in the recast account for Special Funds. The Local Fund Account will not need to be recast.

From The ACCOUNTANT GENERAL
to the GOVERNMENT of MADRAS,

To The Chief Secretary
to Government
Madras

Sir,

Having been requested by the Comptroller General to forward the account for 1872-73 for Provincial Services and Local Funds, I reply that they would be rendered in the accustomed form and recast afterwards, I have the honor accordingly to furnish the accounts for March 1873 and to observe that when these accounts are recast, the balances on 31st March 1873 as per 31st March 1873 for Provincial Services will be reduced, while that for the Special Funds will be increased, because the transactions of the School Fee and Convict Labor Funds which merged in the Provincial Services from 1871-72 will be shewn in the recast account for Special Funds. The Local Fund Account will not need to be recast.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your obedient Servt.
