Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
17th December 1873.

No. 143. Read the following letter from J. C. LOCH, Esq., President of the Municipal Commission, Madras, to the Hon. W. HUDLESTON, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 9th December 1873, S. No. 1401 :—

The Surgeon-General having called upon me to put the cholera pavilions erected by the Commissioners about a year ago into thorough repair, I have the honour to state that, after consultation with the Sanitary Commissioner, and with his full approval, I have informed Dr. Balfour that I consider it will be better to take them down for the present and keep the materials ready for immediate use.

2. The Surgeon-General suggests that, as they were erected under the Orders of Government, I should now report my wish to take them down and store them.

No. 144. ORDER THEREON, 17th December 1873, No. 1832.

The proposed measure is approved.
