Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
26th December 1873.

No. 212. Read the following letter from J. B. PENNINGTON, Esq., President of the Municipal Commission, Trichinopoly, to the Honourable W. HUDLESTON, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Trichinopoly, 18th December 1873, No. 75 :—

I have the honour to report that three of the bye-laws in force in the town of Trichinopoly run as follows :—

1. If the limewashing shall not be performed within the time, or as often as specified above, by the owner or occupier of the building, it shall be done by the Municipal Commissioners, and the expenses incurred therein shall be recovered in the same way [as arrears of rates on houses, &c., are recoverable under Section 53 of Act. III. 1871] as a debt due to the Municipal Commissioners.

2. [All pigs shall be kept confined within an enclosure. Any found straying in the streets, or other public places, will be liable to be destroyed, or the owner thereof prosecuted for a breach of this bye-law.] No pigs shall be allowed to stray in the streets or other public places.

3. Whoever shall commit any breach of any bye-laws [or] either by neglecting to do any act directed to be done by any such bye-laws, or in anywise howsoever, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 20 Rupees, and, in the case of a continuing breach, to a further penalty not exceeding 10 Rupees for every day during which the breach is continued [after the conviction for the offence] after written notice from the Commissioners.

2. The Commissioners for the town of Srirungum having applied to Government for sanction to introduce these bye-laws into their own Municipality, Government in their Proceedings, No. 314, dated the 14th March 1872, objected to the portions underlined, and eventually accorded their sanction after those portions had been altered as shown in red ink.

3. To maintain uniformity of practice, and for the reasons assigned by Government, I request that I may be permitted to alter the bye-laws similarly as regards the Trichinopoly Municipality also.

4. The bye-laws are now being revised and added to, and I venture to take the opportunity of suggesting that a set of model bye-laws might be framed by Government for all Municipalities with such additions or modifications as the circumstances of each town might require.

No. 213. ORDER THEREON, 26th December 1873, No. 1887.

The President is authorized to assimilate the Trichinopoly to the Srirungum Bye-laws.

2. All pigs shall be kept confined within an enclosure. Any found straying in the Streets, or other public places, will be liable to be destroyed, or the owners thereof prosecuted for a breach of this Bye-laws.

3. Whoever shall commit any breach of any Bye-laws, or by neglecting to do any act directed to be done by any such Bye-laws, or in any-wise howsoever, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 20 Rupees and, in the case of a continuing breach, to a further penalty not exceeding 10 Rupees for every day during which the breach is continued after the conviction for the offence.

2. The Commissioners for the Town of Trincomalee having applied to Government for sanction to introduce these Bye-laws into their own Municipality, Government in their Proceedings

No: 314 dated the 14th March 1872 objected to the portions underlined; and have eventually accorded their sanction after those portions had been altered as shewn in red ink.

3. To maintain uniformity of practice, and for the reasons assigned by Government, I request that I may be permitted to alter the Bye-laws similarly, as regards the Trincomalee Municipality also.

4. The Bye-laws are now being revised and added to, and I venture to take the opportunity of suggesting that a set of model Bye-laws might be framed by Government for all Municipalities with such additions or modifications as the circumstances of each town might
