10th February 1873.

No. 62. Read the following Proceedings of the Government of India in the Financial Department, dated Fort William, 23rd January 1873, No. 592:—

Pensions and Gratuities.

Read the under-mentioned papers regarding an inquiry from the Government of the Punjab whether Policemen entertained at the cost of private individuals and firms are eligible for pension :—

Letter from the Government of the Punjab, to the Home Department, No. 2074, dated 26th July 1872.

Letter of the Home Department, No. 481, dated 20th August 1872.

Letter from the Government of the Punjab, to the Home Department, No. 2496, dated 2nd September 1872.

Letter of the Home Department, No. 524, dated 17th September 1872.

Letter from the Government of the Punjab, to the Home Department, No. 2998, dated 25th October 1872.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor-General in Council observes that Policemen entertained at the cost of individuals and corporate bodies, under Sections 13, 14, and 15 of Act V. of 1861, are members of the regular Police Force, and as such are entitled to count their service for pension.

The question for determination now is what additional charge should be imposed upon the persons for whose benefit the Police are employed, on account of pensionary and absentee charges, and on this point the Governor-General in Council is pleased to rule that the rates noted in the margin shall be charged in addition to the actual pay of the Police employed. The amounts so charged shall be credited to the Imperial Revenues.

For officers whose pay is not less than Rs. 100 a month...	4 As. for every Re. of salary.
For other Policemen.	2 ,, ,, ,, ,, ,,

Ordered that the above Resolution be communicated to the Home Department; the several Local Governments and Administrations; the Comptroller General; the several Accountants-General; and the several Deputy Accountants-General in independent charge.
