Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
3rd March 1873.

Read again letter from the Officiating President of the Municipal Commission, Madras, dated 20th December 1872, G. No. 286-A, and recorded in Proceedings of Government, dated 24th January 1873, No. 125.

No. 18. ORDER THEREON, 3rd March 1873, No. 278.

The Governor in Council confirms the bye-laws marginally noted, which were proposed by the Municipal Commissioners for the Town of Madras and published, as required by Section 234 of the Madras Municipal Act, 1867, in five issues of the Fort St. George Gazette, and directs that the bye-laws be re-published in five consecutive issues of the Gazette in the English, Tamil, Telugu, and Hindustani languages.

Bye-Laws.

"1. No meat, dead poultry, fish, salt-fish, or other animal food shall be sold or exposed for sale within the Town in any place other than places licensed by the President of the Municipal Commission as markets in accordance with the provisions of Section 185 of Act IX. of 1867, or as stalls to be specially used for such sale as aforesaid.

2. A license in writing for the use of each such stall as shall not be comprised or included in any licensed market must be obtained from the President, who is hereby empowered to charge a yearly fee of one Rupee for such license, and at his discretion to refuse, withdraw, or revoke such license, and whoever, without such license or after notice of its withdrawal or revocation, uses such stall for the sale or exposure for sale of meat, dead poultry, fish, salt-fish, or other animal food, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to a penalty not exceeding twenty Rupees and to a penalty not exceeding ten Rupees for every day after the conviction for such offence during which the said offence is continued. Provided that an appeal against the President's refusal to grant such license or against his withdrawal or revocation thereof shall lie to two Magistrates in the manner provided by Section 83 for appeals against assessment."
