Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
21*st April* 1873.

No. 84. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 5th April 1873, No. 2062 (Miscellaneous):—

Read the following letter from J. H. MASTER, Esq., Collector of Bellary, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 14th March 1873, No. 69:—

Agreeably to the Order of Government communicated with Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, No. 3423 (Miscellaneous), dated 13th May 1872, house-tax was imposed and levied in the villages comprising the Raidrug Union as per margin.

Raidrug.	Kontanhully.
Mullapuram.	Veerapuram.
Woodizollum.	Ayatanahally.

2. The residents of Ayatanahully appealed against the order of imposition, whereupon the Tahsildar was called upon to report on the subject. He states that the village is a little more than 2½ miles distant from the central station of the union, and produces only Rupees 2-12-0 on seven houses out of twenty-two which constitute the village, and requests that the village may be exempted from the next official year.

3. I have the honour, therefore, to request that the Board will be pleased to move the Government to issue a revised list omitting Ayatanahally.

Submitted for the orders of Government in view to sanction for a revised notification, as the original notification is for 1872-73.

2. The Board presume that the village in question was rated under the old Act; but the amount of house-tax being so small, and the village beyond the prescribed limit, they see no objection to its exemption.
